

The Jerry McGuire Student Entrepreneur Award

$1,000

Awarded to UNCG's Most Entrepreneurial Student

What is it?

This $1,000 award goes to a UNCG student or team who has exhibited exceptional entrepreneurial achievement. Students apply online, showcasing their entrepreneurial achievements, the recipient being selected by a panel of judges.

Who is eligible?

Open to any full-time UNCG student graduating no sooner than spring 2015 who have started businesses, social entrepreneurship ventures, on-campus programming, new clubs and organizations, as well as community service projects.

Could I win?

YES! If you have started a new business, club, event, social venture, on or off-campus programming, non-profit, community service project or anything else that is new and entrepreneurial, you have a great shot!

How do I apply?

Students may self-nominate or be nominated by others by March 1, 2015 at ncec.uncg.edu/student-entrepreneur-award/ or scan the QR Code. Recipient announced on Tuesday, March 31.

North Carolina Entrepreneurship Center

Cultivating an Environment for Innovators to Thrive